3. RIGHT OF INTERMENT

The right of interment is not restricted to those who were parishioners at the time of death. However, non-parishioners may normally only be interred on payment of double the standard fees.

4. EXCLUSIVE RIGHT OF BURIAL

The exclusive right of burial is available for purchase by parishioners both in advance and during the period of arranging an interment whereby the date and time for interment has been supplied to the Council office. The exclusive right of burial in a grave space may be purchased for a period of 100 years.

Purchase of an exclusive right of burial in advance by non-parishioners is at the discretion of the Council. In such circumstances the standard fees will normally be doubled.

The responsibility remains with the purchaser to prove ownership before burial or interment can take place. It is therefore recommended that, unless held in joint names, the names of those to be buried or interred are registered at the time of purchase.
