

Hi I'm just writing to ask if you would contemplate adding some sort of lighting to the pump track added at the bottom of the recreation ground, as then us older kids will have an opportunity to ride it when there are less kids around while it is so dark in the winter months. Maybe one that turns off after 11pm to prevent people messing about around there. Would love for you to think about this, looking forward to hearing back.